

IBRASIL – Local Coordination – University of Rome “Tor Vergata”

- Project coordinator: Stefano Cordiner
- Project manager: Marina Tesauro/Anna Gambogi

Eligible fields of studies offered at partner university:

- ∞ Education (Bachelor): Bsc Education Studies
- ∞ Engineering (Bachelor) / (Doctorate): Bsc in Engineering Sciences (Electrical, Industrial, Energy); PhD in Industrial Engineering, Phd in Mechanical Engineering
- ∞ Technology (Doctorate): Material Science/Phd in Biochemistry,

Degrees Awarded in the Eligible thematic fields of study at University of Rome Tor Vergata:

Education – Bachelor (3 years)

Engineering – Bachelor (3 years); Master (2 years); Doctorate (3 years)

Technology Doctorate (3 years)

Research in Education:

Education studies in a multicultural and international society. Intercultural and social pedagogy in the framework of comparative education, teacher training, also through new education technologies and e-learning.

Research in Engineering, and Technology:

- Energy efficiency and renewable energy production and integration
- Sustainable transportation
- New Materials for energy production
- Electrochemistry for energy storage and production

Previous experience in Erasmus Mundus:

5 Partnership Projects

2 EMMC Projects

Expectations:

- Fostering inter-institutional cooperation between European and Brazilian HEI
- Increase EU-Brazil Joint Research Programmes
- Foster mutual understanding of EU-Brazil respective HE and research systems, to increase recognition of studies and degrees between EU and Brazil

General information and figures

- Young and dynamic University
- 40.000 students
- 6 schools + 1 University Hospital

Università degli Studi di Roma
"Tor Vergata"